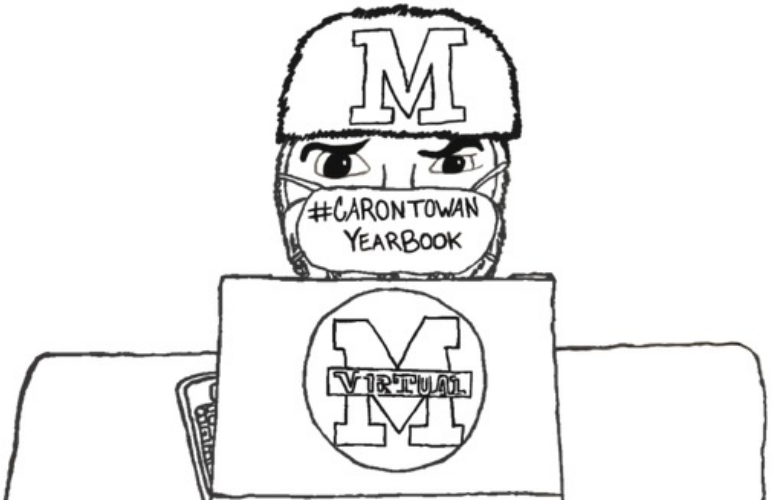
#MountieSpirit!



#Introduction

#What does "Carontawan" mean?

It's a Native American word meaning "Little Town on a Big Hill." It was chosen in 1918 for the first class "annual" at Mansfield State Normal School.

#How long did the 2021 Carontawan take to make?

Even though we gathered photos and info over the whole year, we put the whole book together in three weeks.

#Why just three weeks?

Good question.

#What's with all the hashtags?

The theme for the 2021 Carontawan is #MountieSpirit! We wanted to represent how much of our year was spent virtually due to COVID-19.

#Can I look back at other Carontawans?

North Hall Library has all of the old volumes in their digital archives!
http://bit.ly/CarontawanArchives

#How many submissions did you get?

Our tiny staff couldn't feasibly take photos of everything that happens on campus in a year, so we relied on the community sending us their photos. We probably received input from 5% of our student population and 30% of MU's staff.

#How come some organizations and people aren't in here?

We've done our best to include everyone we can in this book, but rosters and lists of organizations have been incredibly hard to come by. We have a few "#Everyone Else" lists, which are the names we have without faces. Apologies to those we've missed, but we sent out quite a few email broadcasts to send us your photos!

#Will there be a Carontawan next year?

We sure hope so! Having a yearbook is an important piece of history for MU. We missed nearly 30 years of our history because of the Carontawan's hiatus.

#Wow, I want to join the Carontawan.

That's great to hear! Email us at yearbook@mounties.mansfield.edu to get in touch with us!

#Now what?

Read on! We're very proud of this monumental book, and we hope it sparks some wonderful memories of your time at MU.

Hello all! I looked around the office and thought "we could use a little decoration in here" so I brought in a lamp, calendar, and a few decorations with the clock. I hope that's okay! I just wanted to make it a little cozier for y'all.

BEVERAGES

MU's campus is gorgeous. Those of us on campus this year had the space and quiet to appreciate it more than ever.

On the other hand, when most of our enrolled students return next year, we'll start having events again. We had a few good ones this year, but we lost some annual traditions and concerts.

We miss concerts.

Dear Mansfield University Family and Friends, It is great to see the Carontawan return after a brief absence. Many thanks to the Carontawan staff, Faculty Advisor Holly Jackson, and to all the outstanding contributors to this 2020-2021 edition of the Carontawan Mountie Yearbook.

As I thought about writing to you, I wondered how best to capture the events of the past year. Many of the images and stories in this edition reflect the challenges we have faced and, perhaps more importantly, how the Mansfield University Family has embraced these challenges and persevered. It is for this reason that the theme of the 2021 edition of the Carontawan has appropriately been titled #MountieSpirit by its many contributors.

In the past year we felt the impact of social justice issues and continued dissension across the nation. We learned more about equity and inclusion and it opened our eyes to previously unseen challenges that people of color face every day. We engaged in serious conversations about the murders of black men and women in the past year. While these tragic events took place far from Mansfield, the impact of these injustices were felt in our hearts and our university community demonstrated their love and support through open dialogue and an inclusive #UnityMarch on this "little town on a big hill."

Fifty years ago, on May 11, 1971, then Mansfield University President Lawrence Park wrote in his own welcome message about what readers of the Carontowan might experience when looking back at the 1971 edition. "It is not likely that there will be the crisis of another Viet Nam [sic], and surely we will have come to grips with crime, addiction, pollution and problems of race – as we know these issues. But there will be other crises." Unfortunately, the crises of recent times are not far removed from those mentioned by President Park and have taken the modern form of a long-lasting war in Afghanistan, America's opioid crisis, global warming, and the need for policy reform that addresses racism and biases toward certain demographic groups in the delivery of healthcare, immigration, and the criminal justice system.

Our ability or inability to address today's societal issues will determine our future tomorrow. President Park goes on to say, "How well we cope with our daily realities will be the true measure of the Mansfield Experience. Our expectation is that the education you have begun here will help you face these realities of living and, beyond that, will have prepared you to help others who are less well prepared – no matter how critical are the problems of the times."

To this end, the response of the Mansfield University Family to the events of the last year has been nothing short of amazing. Our faculty and staff were dedicated to ensuring that our students' education continued uninterrupted during a global pandemic. Student activities, clubs and organizations, Greek life, demonstrations, student performances, and scholarly presentations followed. This continuity of instruction, university culture, and student life can be difficult in a virtual environment, but providing these activities was also an important part of sustaining the student experience.

Collectively, your contributions to the instructional mission and student programming, whether a faculty member, a coordinator, or simply a participant, helped countless students stay engaged and on course towards their degree. And as we look forward towards the beginning of fall of 2021 and with COVID-19 vaccinations readily available to everyone, we are looking forward to being back in-person on campus with students and faculty safely returning to classrooms, labs, studios, recital halls, theaters, fields, and courts.

Finally, I join my predecessor, President Parks, in challenging our current and former students to take what you have learned and experienced at Mansfield and apply it – perhaps more feverishly than prior generations – to addressing the critical issues that resonate with you. Help make this world a more kind and inclusive place where all individuals can thrive.

Zoom meetings and Desire2Learn! MU students had to deal with them every day, but they weren't alone. Our professors also faced transitioning over to full-virtual learning.

Hats off to these wonderful folks who went above and beyond to keep the education and activities for our students passionate and informational. Let's hope we never have to only learn virtually ever again.

#Student Directory

We wanted to get as many faces into this book that we possibly could. Lacking a way to take photos of everyone ourselves (most students were off-campus), we asked the MU community to submit them to us!

We received photos from a small percentage of our students at MU, but we at least wrote most of your names down! Our directory didn't include the graduating class of Fall 2020, but they're with us in spirit!

#Burning of the Shoe

The "burning of the shoe" ceremony is a tradition held by the football team in which the team burns the shoes of their seniors and collects the ashes in order to keep their seniors' legacies alive once they graduate.

In light of the pandemic, the football team included the field hockey and soccer teams in their ceremony to celebrate their seniors in the absence of their fall seasons.

This is the sappy section of the book.

Legacy is the core value of the Carontawan. What matters the most during our collegiate years is what we take with us and what we leave behind when we graduate. This book is the dedicated monument that our tiny Carontawan staff leaves behind.

To quote the 1930 Carontawan, "The purpose [of this book] is to dip into school life and record it in these pages...to provide the notes from which your memory can reconstruct your years at Mansfield."

Every time I look at a photo in an old yearbook, it feels like a window. There's something special about seeing a tiny piece of something long gone - a memory that you could still live in if you could just reach through that photo...

The Carontawan is vital for recording the life and times of our years at Mansfield University. We lost a lot of memories in its absence: all the years since 1990 (besides 2015). There are thousands of students and faculty, countless changes in our campus geography that I'll never be able to peer at through a photo. In rekindling this publication, I hope its legacy can continue after I'm gone.

This is the 75th volume of the Carontawan, after all. #100 is coming up in just under three decades, and that's a great awareness campaign opportunity.

#Appreciation

There are a lot of people who made this book possible. Way more than we currently have pushpins for. But our Appreciation Board is a good start.

Very special thanks to HOLLY JACKSON, the Carontawan's faculty advisor, who didn't hesitate before accepting a very tentative request to oversee a project that had no plan and barely a staff.

And to the CARONTAWAN STAFF who were willing to hold positions to make the Carontawan legally an organization.

And to that SAME STAFF who put in so many hours in just two weeks to make the first version of this book, who put up with manic staff meetings, and who are the reason why anything around here got done at all.

And to DONNA MINER for our beautiful Alumni 2M office and to RYAN McNAMARA who had to get a "hey can you send out this broadcast" email about every other week.

And to EVERYONE who sent in photos or contributed in any way. This is YOUR book, and I hope we've captured some of the legacy you've had at carontawanmu The 2020-21 yearbook is themed around #mountiespirit, and our digital year. Most of its photos were given to us by the amazing MU community, and we've been honored to pick up the immense legacy of the Carontawan Mountie Yearbook.

We hope you find a smile on every page!
carlhelrich We have a yearbook? I didn't hear about it until now - maybe try advertising it a bit better?
